Dhiraj Sarda — Brand Guidelines

Midnight indigo for depth and calm, antique gold for the sacred, ivory for warmth — with a single touch of sindoor saffron that quietly honours Hanuman ji. Calm, premium and trustworthy: never loud, never "miracle".

PLR THERAPIST · HYPNOTHERAPIST

The mark is a lotus whose centre turns into a spiral: the journey inward. The saffron bindu above it is the brand's quiet devotion. Keep clear space of half the mark's width around it. Never stretch, recolour or add effects.

Photo rules

Natural skin, real face — no heavy beautify filters. Indigo or ivory backgrounds. Eyes sharp, calm expression. Always inside an arch or circle frame with the gold double line.

Words we use

Say

"Support for migraine & chronic pain"
"Sugar (diabetes): stress & cravings support"
"Depression & low mood support"
"May help", "can support", "alongside your doctor's care"
"Certified Therapist · IPHM (UK) accredited training"
"Inner child healing", "release", "remember your strength"

Avoid

~~"Cure diabetes / sugar healing"~~ — diabetes is on the Drugs & Magic Remedies Act schedule
~~"Guaranteed", "100% result", "permanent relief"~~
~~"Stop your medicines"~~ or anything implying it
~~"Dr."~~ — not a medical title for this practice
~~Before/after health claims or testimonials as proof~~
Every piece that names a health condition carries the "alongside your doctor" line.
